INSTITUTE FOR LEARNING IN RETIREMENT PRESENTS A CHRISTMAS CANDLELIGHT TOUR IN HISTORIC EDENTON, NORTH CAROLINA FRIDAY, DECEMBER 13, 2024

The day begins as we arrive at Target 1245 N. Military Hwy, Norfolk, Virginia by 9:00 a.m. Our bus arrives in Edenton around 10:30 a.m. at the Penelope Baker House where many activities begin or are located.

We will divide into two groups. Each group will enjoy the trolley tour, a leisurely guided tour of Edenton to see and learn about the 300-year history and sites in the historic district. There will be free time to enjoy lunch on your own at a local restaurant, shop at many unique stores and boutiques, visit venues with special Christmas activities, explore the town, or relax in a coffee café. Visit this site for more information: ehcnc.org

The Christmas Candlelight Tour from 4-7 pm is a self-guided walking tour of privately-owned homes in Edenton’s Historic District, many dating from the late 1700s to the 1920s. This year, 15 homes or businesses will welcome visitors. Many are located on the same street in close proximity. Docents in homes provide information, with some homes featuring holiday music or activities. Maps will be provided for your convenience.

ARRIVE 9:00 a.m. Target 1245 N. Military Hwy, Norfolk, Va. RETURN to Target approximately 8:45 p.m. Shared rides can be arranged for those who don’t drive at night.
